

Mama's Black Sheep

Hello Everyone!

Firstly we must thank each and every one of you who contributed to our Indiegogo Campaign raising funds for our new CD "The Sheep Save Christmas"! With your help, we reached a little over 70% of our goal, and every penny will go towards our recording/production/manufacturing costs to get this new CD finished. Thank you so much for your generosity, we truly could not do these kind of projects without your support. We've been in the studio all week, and we're excited to share the new tunes with you soon! Keep watching the website as well as our social media pages for more updates on the new CD. We will have two main CD Release shows for this album. The first will be Friday October 12th at The Tin Pan in Richmond, VA. The second will be on Thurs. Nov 15th at Baldwin's Station in Sykesville, MD. These will both be very special nights, and we hope to see y'all there. Tickets are available now!!

In addition to being in the studio trying to finish the CD, September keeps us busy with live shows as well. We've got lots of beach events, and some other fun shows that will keep us on the road in DE, MD, NC, VA, WV, PA and CT!!!! See all of the details below.

New shirts/hats for fall are right around the corner! Once they are in, they will be available through our SHEEP SHOP. If there was something specific you wanted that we don't usually have, please respond directly to this email, as our orders will be placed within the next week so there's still time to include extras.

August was sort of a blur, but we had a really great time with all of you, and an especially nice time on our yearly trek to New England. Many thanks to all of you who made it out to shows, shared our posts online, invited friends, made us dinner, and gave us lovely places to stay during our travels. It takes a village people, and we've got one of the most amazing villages any touring artists could ever hope for. We are humbled by your generosity and kindness every day, and YOU are the reason we do what we do.

Many thanks, and we hope to see y'all soon....
