

Sean Christopher- SHORT BIO-"TIME" 2018

Composer Sean Christopher, brings us his second album, titled "Time" The songs represent the many stories that time can bring through the past, present or future.

Being a fan of time travel has inspired Sean's, composition for this album.

As someone who has never gone to music school, Sean found his passion through dedicated hard work as he taught himself how to be a composer. He found his inspiration through his blood. As Sean has playfully put it, his love for the violin and viola, "his grandfather's fault". That would be Dennis McGee who was a well-known legend in Louisiana Cajun music. Sean's family tree also includes his father Gerry McGee who is a successful guitar player that accompanied both Eric Clapton and the iconic Elvis Presley. Sean's mother Anne McGee is a Children's author as well as a singer and songwriter. It was from her that Sean gained his understanding of artistic writing. Sean Currently lives in Los Angeles, CA.

For more info goto www.SeanChristopher.org