

Windows of Our Hearts

Zach Thomas

Who knows baby how(our) days ever grew so dark?
Joy in(my) heart's gonna move us(from) where we are.
I'll strip (the)bed, turn over the mattress this week.
Pale yellow paint here'n there'll brighten up our room.

(But)O, how bright the sun's gonna shine when storm clouds part.
Feels like it's 'bout time_____ to make(a) brand new start.
Makin' it ready for(a) new_____ set of soft cotton sheets. I'll Clean white curtains will help_____ us_____ chase(a) way(the) gloom._____

Yes, our lives have changed, Lawd, Seems like nothin' ever stays the same. So, Spring - time (has)come a - gain._____ We need (to)let some fresh air in._____
mop up under the bed,_____ And Shake dusty mem' - ries from my head._____
Dreams keep (a)comin' to me, Of So many good things yet to be,_____

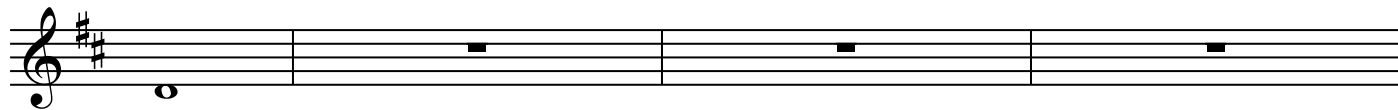

Let me tell you 'bout my change of heart._____
I'm talkin' 'bout the win - dows of our hearts._____ Let's open up those win - dows,
Good (to)be turn - ing over a brand new leaf._____ Let's open up those win - dows, Daf - fo - dils (a)be bloom - in' pret - ty soon._____ Let's open up those win - dows, win-dows of our hearts, We'll watch as wind blows the storm clouds a - part!

win-dows of our hearts, We'll watch as wind blows the storm clouds a - part!

We'll see the rain-bows, new moons and shooting stars, when we op-en up the win dows of our We'll see the rain-bows, new moons and shooting stars, when we op-en up the win dows of our hearts.

hearts.

Windows of Our Hearts

