On jour - ney's end - ing A time will come when I'll pon - der path - ways leads to a crown. I ask di - rec - tions when dai - ly I pray, who walks with me; Be - side still wa - ters, that's where he leads me.

I know for sure. And I re - mem - ber the pro - mise I found: where I have been. Dead - ends and de - tours I'll leave in God's hands and trust the Lord will show me the way. An - gels keep me safe from A faith - ful foll' - wer I'll try to be.

At heav - en's gate I'll lay bur - dens down.
and tra - vel on to heav - en - ly lands.
