

Damn You Thunderhead

god damn you thunderhead I never sleep beneath your islands in the sky I'm six weeks from my lovers keep and lord how'd she cry if I made you my bride but the money and machines and the profit driven dreams and the never ending needs is a world I left behind it's easy now to turn around and if she wonders why I'm trading in my hollow crown for something I can't buy eternities of endless seas is all I ever need my nation is light and peace my destination is a state of mind my focus knows no human bounds my vessel's small but unconfined lord how we're blind to the oceans inside I sail on the line where the sea and the sky are forever intertwined time passes and abides

oh... all of my life I've been wandering oh... then again what good is one man's peace of mind god damn you thunderhead reveal yourself I've watched the pressure drop for days let me ride your rising swell carry me back to my lover's gaze

I'll set it all ablaze

I'm trading in my my wandering to build a better life eternities of empty seas are empty indeed my nation is awaiting me

oh... all of my life I've been wandering
oh... then again what good is one man's peace of mind
