BIOGRAPHY

Spangler is an Americana/Folk/Rock group out of Davis, California. The group was formed by songwriting duo Tim and Helen Spangler. Their signature sound combines catchy melodies, dual singing, and harmonies with Americana/Folk Instrumentation. The band hit its stride in 2012 adding guitarist/bassist Adam Estell and drummer Chris Reilly.

On the band's first full-length album, "We're All Fine Here Now," Spangler's sound has evolved and expanded from its Americana core, seamlessly adding Indie Rock elements and sweeping four-part harmonies. The band pulls together Adam's electric guitar with Tim's acoustic, Reilly's uniquely melodious drum style and Helen's shimmering vocals to create a sound that sets it apart. Effortlessly running the gambit from rockers to contemplative singer-songwriter tracks, Spangler has something for everyone.

QUOTES & REVIEWS

"Two vocals and one acoustic guitar and [they] just fill this room. Unbelievable!"
- Pieter Pastoor, Host, Listening Lyrics, KDRT 95.7 FM, Davis

"Spangler delivers intelligent, intriguing folk-rock with affectionate harmonies and a delicious, Friday-night groove."
- Rita Hosking, award-winning singer/songwriter

"Spangler [is] a favorite at Sundstrom Hill . . . wonderful original music . . ."
- Lynne Sundstrom, Co-Owner, Sundstrom Hill Winery, Davis

"Spangler has a really friendly sound that is somewhere between Fleetwood Mac meets Bruce Hornsby, with a slice of Joan Osborne thrown in for flavor . . . a fun band for sure."
- Lob Instagon, Booking & Stage Manager, SHINE, Sacramento
