From The Horse's Mouth:

"Ledfoot Larry is a very solid country music group. They are prepared, totally know their material, and they have an honest and humble country sound. They play older standard country hits, plus they mix in newer country hits of today. As a music coordinator, I was impressed with their professionalism both during the planning stages, and once they actually got on stage and did their set. We got many high-fives from people saying "we love them!" We have already hired them for an upcoming show". – Joe Gensch, Resthaven HR Festival
