Questions for the Week

1. Throughout this healing journey, do you feel that God has done something new in you or that you're a different person than you used to be? If so, describe what you feel is different.
2. Have you experienced God placing you back in "old familiar places or relationships"? If so, what are those places or relationships?
3. Was it a challenge for you not to fall back into old patterns or habits? How did you respond?
4. Do you feel you are seeing old things from a different "elevated" perspective now? I encourage you to think of ways that you can speak, think, and respond differently than you ever have before to people or circumstances around you.
