

SEND ME AWAY

some mother's ancient son got a lover on the run you better lay her down in her sleep i'm gonna bring her back to safety my friend's girl, she want's me i'll give her anything so shy and lonely i know you're hurt leave him the friends on his social network i'm gonna love you like i never knew how

sun dial is lookin' out i'll give you somethin' you can scream about you better run away to yesterday say it again or send me away

send, send, send me away
