

On The Way

searching for the place where i went wrong looked under floors and tore down walls discovered in the lost & found i traded you to pay the price for fame you could make me eat my words if i had something more to say you were something i went after i wish i could help you on the way the ocean's glowing softly from below as we swim, our bodies hidden among a silhouette shadow show the night is ours, we're almost in a dream you only had to say the word and i will hold you in-between

you were something i went after
i wish i could help you on the way

beaten, battered, broken, no more hiding becoming stronger still all the while have you really seen her? she looks out of control again that's the one things she won't try to hide

you were something i went after
i wish i could help you on the way