

I Don't Know Myself Anymore

Can't you see?
There's no turnin' back
How can you leave someone with that lonely look in their eyes?
But I can see it now
You were just pretend
If I only trusted myself to the end
If I only trusted myself to the end

Can't you see?
There's no turnin' back
Still I need someone, if you've ever looked in my eyes
But if I knew that now
You were turnin' round
Am I still lookin' back for someone else?
Am I still lookin' back for someone else?

You can't see
What's happening to me
And I don't know myself anymore

If I only trusted myself to the end
If I only took myself to the end
