

Ageless

Don't speak unless you're spoken to We'll do things we never thought we'd do You're leavin' it all on the line

'cause you're ageless
'cause you're ageless

trust in the beautiful life take water and turn into wine you'll force all the moments you find

'cause you're ageless
'cause you're ageless

but you can't hide your timeline you can't hide the truth
you can't hide your timeline
you can't hide the truth

as layers of your dream are unfurled the luckiest fool in the world they'll turn you until you impress

'cause you're ageless
'cause you're ageless

the pages are written on the wall telling you to break down the door you know just what you're looking for

'cause you're ageless
'cause you're ageless

but you can't hide your timeline
you can't hide the truth
you can't hide your timeline
you can't hide the truth
