

Home Without You

Lyin' on the floor
Hidin' in the street
Don't reveal the place that we meet

'cause I am I child you cannot teach silent films are all that I read you who have nothing to hide

you who don't say a word

but tonight
I really can't be home without you yeah tonight
I really can't be home without you

Slidin' through the door Runnin' up the trees
A broken trail is all that you'll see

Your eyes are on fire when you look at me Burnin' through a dark history

you who have nothing to hide

but tonight
I really can't be home without you
yeah tonight

A mind full of fear There's nobody here

I really can't be home without you
I really can't be home without you
I really can't be home without you
