

All These Changes

why should i care so much if you like me? being someone else, that's not like me oh baby no, oh baby no

you tell me i only get into your way losing who i am, and i say

take it back
i'm not here for all your plans as all these changes come and go i say we're through, you don't wanna listen think of what we won't be missing

you can't even say one word to my face go behind my back, and i say

i'm down on luck
but i'm not giving up
all the fighting
all the fussing
all the failures
i don't need to know
all the screaming
all the sighing
all the shadows
i don't need to know

ooh, i thought you may be someone better but i don't think that now
