

ADRIFT

now you're one with the child inside a faithful loan gone in the blink of an eye when you're better alone so am i

gonna be back some day tell her she's wonderful tired of playin' it safe only to grow so cold you're gonna let her go this time

the beautiful and wise

coming down
little to fascinate you're hangin' around stand in the pouring rain you're gonna let her go
you're gonna let her go this time

in the palace where i lay my final thoughts to rest no more pressure no more restless thoughts to put to test i'm adrift and i love you
and i love you
and i love you
