

TOUCHÉ

from the fire we were born again life ain't worth livin' low my friend it's a shame
touché
a one time chance must never go to waste won't you stay for a while you're lovely like a child in true lover's style

you hide away

two lights in the freezing cold time has come to find the one you know gone away
touché
someone's lookin' out for you today

you hide away

let the fire inside you light the way

like a child
you hide away
