

Motorcade

say a prayer for the little ones feeling so afraid
'cause they lost their mom say a prayer for creative friends they will change the world you inspire them
say a prayer for the gift of sleep
had a love i lost
found her in a dream

here comes the motorcade
a fallen star parade
it lingers, then flies away

say a prayer for the catholic kids feeling so ashamed don't know what they did say a prayer for the world at large money changing hands in an empty war

a fallen star parade
