

A Chance To Be Found

Maybe if I could breathe somehow
Where'd you run
Where'd you run to?

I don't need to be calming down
Still I run
Where will I run to now?

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found

The pain of our age has us slowing down
Where's the fun
In the moment?

I could be your only one
But still you run
Where's the motive now?

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found

Pray for something good
Pray for something good

But I can't wait any longer now

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found

I'm waiting
I'm waiting for a chance to be found
