

NO SUN, NO STARS

no sun at nighttime don't worry i'm gonna tell you why
one day she'll be mine
don't worry i'm gonna change her mind

one day i'm gonna change her mind and all that you had ever known turn around and watch it grow
'cause if you celebrate it you'll have to narrate your own
'cause you are right where you belong no stars in daylight

i'm out on the wire turning opposites in two she asks if i like her well i can account for loving you
