

WITH YOU

may i fall asleep
right here next to you?
i won't try to speak
i'll lie here next to you

when you talk of space
i'll try to stay awake
dreamin' of this place
you wish to escape

i'm ok right here with you
right here with you

when you open up
softer than a flower
i have just enough
to hold you for the hour

then you fall asleep
in a warm embrace
i won't speak
'cause i'm dreamin' of space

right here with you
ight here with you
