

THE SAME THING

tangled fate
with the lesson on the window of your tarnished name and i've got mine sleeping slowly with the girl and her illusion eyes

now you've got everyone tired
the whole family
i can hear you thinkin' the same thing

childlike race
spanning eons in the dreams of light through expanding space but you try to hide from the nightmare of an idle world you cannot decide

i can hear you thinkin' the same thing
i can hear you thinkin' the same thing

you've got me somewhat floating
i've got the fire too
you're turnin' waves in circles
i'm only here for you

i'm only here for you

the same thing
the same thing
