

Aging Hearts

it's been a while, since I last wrote a song for you it's been a while, but babe this one here is for me too, yeah it's been a while, maybe that bear aint got no teeth, yeah it's been a while, am I the curious boy you meet this time

whoa
don't give up and don't hold back save yourself from a spirit attack
'cause we're respectable yeah we're respectable
but not invincible
with our crying, aging hearts it's been a while, when will I see you again it's been a while, are you still my only friend it's been a while, the teacups empty but it's still warm it's been a while, do you remember what we swore last time?
