

I Lie (To Tell The Truth)

hit the floor, i scream in shock more whispered words and lazy talk and today, may move for you a world away in your living room and that's why i lie to tell the truth nothing's closer to the truth and the reason i fight at all skin on my back and your pretty smile but the story all came untrue i wanted everything for you and that's why i lie to tell the truth

and that's why i lie to tell the truth

attitude, yeah attitude took the floor, i lept in shock more silly words in a countless clause and tomorrow, they'll censure you you were lyin' dead in your swimming pool

and that's why i lie to tell the truth
