

The River Will Flow

If you want to suffer
There are many people ready to take your soul

And if you reach for something
Then get ready 'cause it will be on your own

Fly high, slip off that stone
Free your soul, mind and bones.

If you want to force it
Then we'll never find the peace we're looking for

Say, if you keep it nice and true
Then everything will shine and the river will flow.

Fly high, slip off that stone
Free your soul, mind and bones.

Then we'll never find the peace we're looking for
What we want...
...Is that everything will shine and the river will flow

If you want it then keep it
There are many people ready to take it from you

And if you really want it
Then get ready cause there are many facing you

And if you want to force it
Then one day you'll find the world divided in two

Say, if you keep it nice and true
Then everything will shine bright on you.

Shine on, rise up that mood
Don't leave everything apart from you(Hum...Yeah eh)

Then we'll never find the peace we're looking for
What we want (Yhea ah)...
...Is that everything will shine and the river will flow

No more cries
All around the peace we are looking for
What we want(Yeah ah)...
...Is that everything will shine and the river will flow
