

THE HERE AND NOW

In 2016 a group of elite musicians would travel through space and time to “The Here and Now” and bring some of the greatest songs ever recorded back to the masses. Armed with only some basic musical instruments, astonishing vocal chops, and their good looks, this band of four began the daunting task of re-indoctrinating helpless concert goers throughout the great state of Virginia with heavy doses of 90’s era alternative rock, “beefed up” versions of 80’s new wave classics, and a few songs from other decades for good measure.

of songs that ranges anywhere from Richard Marx to Nirvana and Eddie Money to Eve 6. Mission commanders T.J. Sutherland and George Broyer form the backbone rhythm section on drums and bass guitar respectively, while Ryan “Cold Shot” Colton provides the tasty lead guitar licks needed to breath new life into these sometimes long forgotten gems.

The band is currently being booked for frequent shows all around Richmond and surrounding areas and they have recently expanded their mission into the growing brewery and festival scenes. So come sing along with some of your favorite songs and join us in The Here and Now...
