

Lindley Creek Biography

Lindley Creek is an acoustic family band showcasing beautiful, traditional bluegrass & gospel music, soulful, soaring lead vocals, soothing family harmonies, intricate instrumental breaks and original songwriting, Lindley Creek presents compelling acoustic music and a sincere family ministry.

Lindley Creek Concerts

“At a Lindley Creek concert, you will laugh, smile and tap your foot along with awesome music and unique arrangements. Lindley Creek has a great mix of cover and original tunes with a powerful message that inspires.”

-Link Union, band

Lebanon, Missouri

Independent, pioneering and faithful, the family performs throughout the Ozarks and around the US and Canada at churches, concert series, active living senior RV parks, fairs, festivals and community and performing arts centers. Their bluegrass and gospel harmonies will inspire your community gathering and infuse your audiences with joy during their up-beat, family-friendly performances.

Lindley Creek has a passion for heart-touching music and a gift for encouraging music. Community events are enhanced by this family's inspiring musical performance.

Meet the Family Members

Jase- Fiddle, Saxophone, Lead & Harmony Vocals Now 22, he began Violin lessons at five, experimented with Dobro and then trained with Kyle Link (Link Union) for a number of years. He now works with Jim VanCleve (Josh Turner Band).His lead and harmony vocals blend beautifully with his sister's. He counts Michael Buble', Michael Cleveland and Andy Leftwich as some of his musical inspirations

Katie- Mandolin, Octave Mandolin, Guitar, Fiddle, Lead & Harmony Vocals At 20, she is the group's powerful lead singer and mandolin player. Now also a budding songwriter, Lindley Creek includes some of her original compositions in their repertoire. She is always working on new song ideas by making notes on her phone then she'll pick up the guitar and get to work completing a new song.

John- Upright & Electric Bass, Lead & Harmony Vocals & Bus Driver He holds down the groups' solid rhythm on bass and keeps the family safe on the road. John is the spiritual rock for the family group and ministry. The family offers encouragement through their music. They inspire families to stick together during these challenging times.

Kathie - Rhythm Guitar, Lead & Harmony Vocals Kathie began singing in church as a child, played in a country band during high school and began writing songs in 2005. Serving as the band's manager and agent, Kathie is the artistic director staging the shows, maintains their wardrobe and website and is their social media coordinator. Just as she provides rock solid rhythm guitar during each show, she is the glue that keeps the family band on the road sharing their music and their faith with audiences as they tour.