Bennet Jackson is a performing singer/songwriter from Johns Creek, Georgia, who found his love of music in the 4th grade playing violin in the school orchestra. Ten years later he still plays every day though his main instrument is now the guitar. A prodigious writer, Bennet has been performing original compositions for more than six years and has taken the stage at venues in Atlanta, Charleston, South Florida and New York City. His musical influences are innumerable and his unique style bridges various genres from blues and rock to jazz, pop and indie-folk. Noted for his exceptional guitar playing and soulful vocal style, Bennet has at times been compared to John Mayer, Jason Mraz and Jeff Buckley. His debut CD Open Curtains was released November 1, 2017. In addition to his original music, Bennet has rehearsed more than 140 popular, crowd-pleasing cover tunes that he faithfully reproduces with skill and precision. Using a loop pedal, drum machine and vocal harmonizer enables Bennet to create the full sounds of a larger ensemble as a solo performer.
