

Three Men on a Hill

Intro) C F C F

1) C F
Three men on a hill
C F
Two thieves and You
C F
A man stands accused
C F
The sign reads "King of the Jews"

Break) G F C G F C

2) C F
Angry words thrown your way
C F
"Save yourself", they shouted that day
C F
Earthly goods they took for their own
C F
Casting lots, the seeds had been sown

Break) G F C G F C

Chorus) F C
Nothing they say can change how you feel
F C
Nothing they give can replace what is real
F G C
Nothing they do can erase what you did on that day
C F

3) C F
At the hour, darkness covered the land
C F
He cries out, God here I am
C F
The earth shakes to the core
C F G F C G F C
In the dark, he breathes no more
F C

Chorus) F C
Nothing they say can change how you feel
F C
Nothing they give can replace what is real
F G C
Nothing they do can erase what you did on that day

Instrumental) Am Dm Am Em Dm Am

C F C F

Three Men on a Hill (continued)

4)                   C                   F
The third day finally arrives
          C                   F
Mary goes at sunrise
          C                   F
The stone broken free
          C                   F           G F C   G F C
Empty tomb; nothing to see

Chorus)           F                   C
Nothing they say can change how you feel
          F                   C
Nothing they give can replace what is real
          F                   G                   C
Nothing they do can erase what you did on that day

Chorus)           F                   C
Nothing they say can change how you feel
          F                   C
Nothing they give can replace what is real
          F                   G                   C
Nothing they do can erase what you did on that day

Outro)           Csus4 C