

What's in a Song

Chorus:

What's in a song that helps me to heal?
Why can a song allow me to feel?
Oh, I can't explain the joy of the tears,
Though I've been a singer for years.

V1

There are times when the folks are having a ball,
And the drinks and the jokes could fill up a hall;
But give me a song, a chorus, or more,
And that's when I'm likely to soar.

Oh they say that there's nothing like having a feast
To bring folks close together from north, south, west, east,
But give us a song when the feasting is done,
And that's when the many are one.

Chorus

V2

There's a time and a place for sorrow and woe,
When the pain and the tears are expected to flow,
But give me a song and voices close by,
And that's when I'm likely to cry.

There've been times when my heart has wanted to weep
But the pain and the tears were buried too deep.
Then out of the blue in a roomful of song,
The locked inside feeling was gone.

Chorus

V3

There are places where pleasure is wrapped up and sold
And you purchase a moment with silver and gold;
But the pleasure of singing's a blessing to me
'Cause I know it by heart and it's free.

Oh the times I remember and cherish so much
When we reach with our voices - it's almost like touch,
And we pull in the circle and banish our fears
And we try to keep singing for years.

Chorus:

What's in a song that helps me to heal?
Why can a song allow me to feel?
Oh, I can't explain the joy of the tears,
Though I've been a singer for years.
