

Feel free to personalize the invitation however you'd like, but please make 100% sure to include the following language in the invitation:

"This is a donation-based concert; please come prepared to make a donation to the artist after the show."

If you'd like to use prepared language for your invitation, you could copy and use the following:

"You are invited to a house concert by Flagstaff-based recording artist Dean Neasham at our home on _____. Please arrive at _____. The concert will start promptly at _____."

Dean's music is powerful and deeply connective, delivered in an unmistakable tenor voice that brings to mind Vince Gill and John Denver.

Learn more about Dean at his website, deanneasham.com.

This is a donation-based concert; please come prepared to make a donation to the artist after the show."