

WONDERFUL

NOEL & TRICIA RICHARDS

WONDERFUL

Too many things are left unsaid, the words are locked inside my head,
I realise I should have spoken sooner.
Some wear their heart upon their sleeve, cards and flowers they will leave,
I must confess I am a little slower.

Oh, I want you to know I'm not taking you for granted.
I won't let this moment go, until you hear it loud and clear.

With heart and mind and soul,
These words say it all,
You're wonderful, wonderful.
I hope you can see,
How much you mean to me,
You're wonderful, wonderful.

You always want the best for me, you never let me down.
You make this world a better place.
Life is so good when you are around.

LOVE IS

Love is this feeling that fills all my heart.
Love is a journey I have chosen to start.
Love is the answer when those feelings are gone.
Love is the promise, to stay when it all goes wrong.

Love keeps me faithful, love keeps me true.
Let's grow old together.
Until life is through,
I will love you.

Love is a yes when I want to say no.
Love means I listen when I just want to go.
Love keeps me gentle when I want to be tough.
Love makes me patient when I have had enough.

Love never knows what life will bring along the way.
Love is never free, there's always a price to pay.
Love is a risk, no happy endings guaranteed.
Love is a promise, I gave you, you gave me.

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY

In every life a little rain will fall.
We did our best to carry on,
When trouble came to call.
What became of love's young dream; swept away.
All the colours of our life turn to grey.

Don't leave me standing,
Don't walk away.
Don't stop believing,
Love will find a way.

When we've hurt the ones we love the most.
What can we do, when all romance has been lost.
When all is said and all is done,
Who takes the blame?
Can we mend these broken hearts; start again?

Love forgives, love forgets, does no wrong.
Love endures, love is kind, love is strong.

IT'S NOT OVER

It's not over 'til it's over,
It's not finished 'til the end.
I am praying, I am hoping,
For a miracle my friend.

Oh how fleeting life can be,
Shipwrecked on a stormy sea.
Joy to sorrow a heartbeat away,
So much to do and say, hold on to every day.

It's not over 'til it's over,
It's not finished 'til the end.
Everybody on this journey,
Needs to know they have a friend.

Deep inside there's something strong.
Not giving up when hope is gone.
Life is for living so let's carry on.
So much to do and say, hold on to every day.

NEED TO LOVE

You might be right and I'm wrong,
I may be weak and you're strong.
No matter where we come from,
Why can't we all get along?

Why can't we live side by side,
Let go of all that divides?
You can't hear my point of view,
When I don't listen to you.

We need to love,
We need to show respect.
We need to love each other,
As we love ourselves.

Why does our truth make us fight,
Why do we need to be right?
Our fears flourish and grow,
When we let prejudice show.

Some say God rules over all,
Loves all His children the same.
So is He taking the fall,
For all that's done in His name?

So I will try to be kind,
And leave good memories behind.
Knowing that when I am gone,
This love will still carry on.

SORRY

Heat of the moment, words were spoken you regret.
Time is passing, still you're hurting, can't forget.

How long,
Will you carry on this fight?
The problem being both of you are right.

Don't wait too late, to say I'm sorry.
Give way today and say I'm sorry.

Communication at a breakdown, what began it all?
Do the years of love and friendship, matter not at all?

How long before you swallow all your pride?
Reach out and put your differences aside.

All that really matters in life you cannot buy.
A true friend is the greatest treasure you can find.
Never let the sun go down, until you put the wrong things right.

We are so grateful to Caroline and Sue for all the invaluable help they have given us, as we wrote these songs and shared the rough ideas for this CD.
Caroline has worked her incredible magic on the production of this album, to create a sound that is very much "Noel & Tricia Richards".

We hope you enjoy listening to this as much as we have enjoyed making it.
