

Isaac S Parham

Saxophonist Isaac S. Parham from Baltimore, Maryland is an energetic, versatile, composer and entertainer, who has performed with such artist as The Jacksons, Regina Bell, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Ramsey Lewis, Ron Carter, Cyrus Chestnut, Dennis Chambers, The Chi-Lites, Maysa, Maurette Brown Clark, Marion Meadows, Kim Waters and many others. A versatile musician who has toured Canada, with the show Ain't Misbehavin and throughout the East Coast, from New York to South Carolina, as a soloist and group member with The Nex Levl Band, The David Bach Consort, Fahrenheit, Beyond Blue, Four Corners, and The Rollex Band. He has also recorded with Tracy Hamlin, Marcel Russell and The Nex Levl Band.

A native of Baltimore, MD, he attended the Music Careers program at Frederick Douglass High School, and The Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University, a conservatory and university-preparatory school, responsible for his introduction and influence with the music of Grover Washington Jr., Charlie Parker, John Cotrane, David Sanborn and countless others. His musical performances are always memorable to his audiences, and he is noted for his talent, passion, and personality on stage.

Isaac attributes all of his success and accomplishments to his belief and faith in GOD and has been a member of Morning Star Baptist Church for over 15 years, where he serves on the Praise Ensemble.

