

Short Biography:

Anton du Preez is a musician/composer/singer in Seattle. A regular performer and sessions recording artist, he composes and produces multiple genres from his home studio. He has years of experience arranging and composing for various ensembles, and honed rapid production timelines while serving in the Navy band.

Anton is currently studying with two-time Emmy Award winning composer, Hummie Mann, at the Pacific Northwest Film Scoring Program's Master of Music in Film Composition.

His greatest joy in life is sharing and experiencing music. Its ability to simultaneously conveying and eliciting emotion to enhance the experience of life and film, and to express complex feelings with the vast array of tiny nuances or grandiose breadth that words alone can never express. Anton hopes to share this experience with you!