

SAMPLE DINNER / DANCING TIMELINE

Following are very general suggestions for a wedding reception where the band is to start at the opening of the dining room doors (after Cocktails).

Times are approximate and arbitrary. You can change the order of activities to suit your preferences.

If your Room entry time is different than below please adjust the timing of all other activities.

TIME	ACTIVITY
8:00pm	Room entry - Band starts
8:15	If there is a Wedding Party introduction please provide list. Introduction of Bride and Groom. (Names) _____ Bride and Groom First Dance. (Title) _____ After a short while the parents may be called to join in. <input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no
8:20	Bridal Party dance (Title) _____ After a short while all guests will be called to join in.
8:25	Fast, festive dance. _____ Return guests to their seats Blessing over the vine (Kiddush) Name _____ Blessing over the bread (Hamotzi) Name _____
8:30	First course is served - appetizers, salad etc. Band plays appropriate music. Cake cutting (if required at this time by the venue). Or at about 9:30pm (see below)
8:45	Toasts: Family of bride _____ Family of groom _____ Best man _____ Maid of honor _____ Friends and other relatives _____
9:00	Band plays dance music until the main course arrives.
9:20	Main course is served - 1st Band break - Pre-recorded music
9:30	Band is back. Will play appropriate music until dinner is over. After this the bride and groom are invited to welcome guests & cut the cake. Cake cutting may be required earlier (about 8:30pm - see above) "Father-Daughter" dance _____ "Mother/son" dance _____ Shortly thereafter all guests are invited to join in. General Dance set Please specify: Bouquet toss <input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no - Garter toss <input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no This dance set will include a "Hora".
10:45	If there is a "Sweet Table", band takes a 10 min break. Pre-recorded music is played More Dancing and more dancing and more fun!!!!
11:00	Overtime starts- Band EmCee will ask about this 10-15 minutes prior.

If you have any questions please call me at the numbers printed above.
Thank you.