

You will not find a better band than Phase 4. They played at my older daughters wedding five years ago and I wouldn't think of looking for another band this time. They kept the wedding rocking all night. There aren't enough nice things to say about Maurice and his band. They are very professional and they listened to our requests for what we wanted and completely followed through. I would highly recommend them. They truly will make your event a day to remember