

Runaway
Lyrics by AJ Steel

Verse

She's caught between
Bad and evil
She's caught between
The gun and needle
None of us are born this way
But Daddy came into her room one day
Daddy came into here room

Chorus

Run baby, Run baby
Runaway
Before he hits you
And your beautiful face
Drugs and red lights are hiding the way
I saw you faint in the pouring rain
I found a way
I bought a ticket for us
On the last express train
So run baby, run baby
Runaway
Run with me on the last express train

Verse

She sells her body for sex
Distinguished gentlemen pay her the best
The drugs the only thing that lets her rest
'cause when she's high
She forgets about it
When she's high
She forgets about it

Chorus

Run baby, Run baby
Runaway
Before he hits you
And your beautiful face
Drugs and red lights are hiding the way
I saw you faint in the pouring rain
I found a way
I bought a ticket for us
On the last express train
So run baby, run baby
Runaway
Run with me on the last express train
