

TONY LUNDERVOLD

Biography

Tony has put all the dedication and determination, that he learned from years of rodeo, into his music. His debut album, “From the Ranch to the Rodeo” has had significant airplay from radio stations all across the world since its release and has received many notable reviews. In 2015 “From the Ranch to the Rodeo” was nominated in the top 5 for the Academy of Western Artists Western Album of the Year. From covers by Merle Haggard and Chris LeDoux to his original music he’s written about his life experiences as a rodeo competitor, a family man, and a lifelong cowboy, Tony entertains fans from all walks of life. Whether playing at a large venue with his band or in a more intimate setting as a solo artist, Tony is able to draw-in the audience with his warm vocals, personal interaction, and professionalism.
