

All Locked Up Inside

Always thinking about you...
Worried about what you say...
But I feel your pain...

Cause, you have your demons and I have mine
A battle continues to carry on inside
who is right and who is wrong
All I know is that we've been apart far too long

It's my feelings I can't hide...
I feel all locked up inside
I feel all locked up inside
I feel...all locked up inside

You live your life I live mine
Things just go the way they do will it matter in then end
No one knows not even you my friend

Cause, you have your demons and I have mine
A battle continues to carry on inside
who is right and who is wrong
All I know is that we've been apart far too long

It's my feelings I can't hide...
I feel all locked up inside
I feel all locked up inside
I feel...all locked up inside

You make me feel so sad
When I try to reach out you
I feel you stab me in your own way
Why can't we take the past simply and wash it away

Cause, you have your demons and I have mine
A battle continues to carry on inside
who is right and who is wrong
All I know is that we've been apart far too long

It's my feelings I can't hide...
I feel all locked up inside
I feel all locked up inside
I feel...all locked up inside

Ahahhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
Ahahhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
Ooooooooooahhhhhhhhh
Ooooooooooahhhhhhhhh
Locked up inside
