

Jealousy

It's taken me now
I know I won't survive
Its holding me down
It's eating me alive

Like a child crying in the dark I'm in an un... controllable state

Thoughts of betrayal running frantically through my head full of hate

Jealousy... its taken hold of me
Jealousy... it won't let go of me
Jealousy... it's crawling through my veins
Jealousy... like a ball and chain

A green-eyed monster dwells within fighting hard to dominate

Its taken hold of my insanity
it swallowing me down
I suffocate

Jealousy... it's taken hold of me
Jealousy... it won't let go of me
Jealousy... it's crawling through my veins
Jealousy... like a ball and chain

Insecurity runs ramped inside the fear of solitary are feelings I can't hide

Resentful thoughts flow though my brain Torches of loneliness still remain

Jealousy... its taken hold of me
Jealousy... it won't let go of me
Jealousy... it's crawling through my veins
Jealousy... like a ball and chain
