NEW ALBUM BLACK HILL MAY 1

THINK BOOKER T SHARING A SCOTCH WITH B.B. KING AT THE CROSSROADS AFTER MIDNIGHT

"That these funky greens are being produced by the Australian band Lazy Eye somewhere in the southern Australian climes is just the international gravy made by the music"

All About Jazz (USA)

"Fine album from a band that I'd soon want to see play on the European stage."

Rudolf's Music (Netherlands)

"Un petit tour en Australie pour découvrir un trio remarquable... A remarkable trio"

Blues Again (France)

"The experience acquired in such a short time of life is expressed in "Lazy Eye"... interweaving the present and future of the blues, showing the strength and passion of the trio"

Stories Of The Blues (Spain)

"This 10-track self-penned, live album is a cracker from the start and to quote Renee Zellweger, this album "had me at hello"

Blues Matters (UK)

"It's a pleasure to see a weather-beaten Hammond fronting a band and even more so when it's wielded with style.

Such is the case with Adelaide blues outfit Lazy Eye"

"Powerfully fuelled by the soaring sound of Whetter's B3, Graf's fretwork is neatly crafted, pushing through the roaring organ sound when needed. Vocals are mostly shared between the members and show a clear grasp of the fundamentals of gritty, gripping delivery and soulful blues demands. This is a band that has quality and purpose at its core."

- Elmore Magazine (USA)

Having clocked up a multitude of miles in their tour van, the 2015 Group Of The Year (Australian Blues Music Awards) has not only developed a reputation as one of the hardest working bands in the country but has also picked up a swag of accolades along the way including Best Blues Album for their debut release Move Me (2013 SA Blues & Roots) and the band awarded Best Blues Artist (2014 South Australian Music Awards). Most recent release, Pocket The Black was judged the 2016 Blues Album Of The Year (Adelaide Roots & Blues Association). Showcasing the respective talents of Evan Whetter (vocal, organ & harmonica), Erica Graf (guitar) & Mario Marino (drums), Pocket The Black was also nominated for Best Blues Album (2017 Australian Blues Music Awards). Their brand new offering Black Hill will be officially released May 1 2018
