

The Sounds of Children's Music

A Poem by Bobby Susser

The sounds of children's music begin at birth.

Rocking, swinging, shouting, singing.

Reaching out to integrate, quietly cooing to communicate.

Let us all stand up and cheer.

Let us all stand up and encourage the sounds of children's music to continue and continue.

© Copyright 2004 Bobby Susser