Blog & Testimonials

“James Everett reminds me of a young Smokey Robinson with his piercing blue eyes, capturing the appeal of some of the legendary musical artists who inspired him.”

*Anchored In Spirit
December 2015*

“This is what we’re missing, romance, respect and the ability to weave through the genres and styles. James is magnetic and charming in a Tony Bennett / Nat King Cole / Rat Pack kind of way.”

*Melanie Henderson

“We have had James as the lead entertainment for two parties for our law firm and he was a big hit. Everyone enjoyed the music and it took our events to another level. Highly recommend him.”

A native of San Francisco, US singer James Everett comes from the villages of jazz, blues, soul and gospel, creating a vocal performance fusion of R&B/Neo-soul with a passion to inspire others with songs riding on the edge of that timeless vibe. As one fan puts it “This is what we’re missing, romance, respect and the ability to weave through the genres with style. James is magnetic and charming.”

James has performed with some of the Bay Areas top musicians at venues such as the Oakland Sound Room, Brick and Mortar, The Mark Hopkins (Peacock Room), The Fairmont Hotel and a few coffee houses and wineries. Inspired by a number of musical influences (Frank Sinatra, Roberta Flack, Luther Vandross, Al Jarreau, Aretha Franklin and Smokey Robinson to name a few), James found his baritone-tenor / falsetto eclectic vocal style.

Currently, James is focused on getting back into the swing of things with the anticipated release of his New R&B/Soul Single “Slipping Away” to drop early Spring (2021).
