

The Compact - Electric Trio Bio

The Compact has been one of the Hudson Valley's most highly regarded groups for almost a decade. The current trio line-up includes Erin Hobson (guitar/vocals), Steven W. Ross (bass/vocals) and Paul Rossman on drums. Effortlessly combining elements of various musical styles like sonic chemists, the group is categorically hard to pin down, with a diverse repertoire spanning Rock, Blues, and Funk with hints of Jazz and Latin. Even the band's cover songs serve to exemplify how they own their unique versions. The band performs at every top music venue in the Hudson Valley and has shared the stage with international acts in virtually every genre.
