Contract duration The life of this contract shall be for _____ the Vocal Lessons with Laurel Smith.

Willingness to participate in the musical life of Vocal Lessons requires practice and dedication. Student will agree to practice the required time given to learn vocal achievements desired. It is up to student to put proper amount of effort into their lesson. This includes lesson material, songs and warm ups.

Commencement of lessons Lessons will commence once per week on chosen day and time. It is expected that tuition fees are paid by the commencement of lessons.

Payment The payments that you make for vocal lesson should be made to Laurel Smith by cash or electronic etransfer. EFT transfer details appear on the invoice you receive.

Lessons payments are _____ per _____ lesson and _____ per month.

Absence from lessons: Laurel Smith should be notified in advance of the student's absence. Her contact number is on this contract and also on your account.

- In the case of a planned absence, such as an extended holiday, a school excursion or other event, notification should be given seven days prior to the absence

. • In the case of illness, she should be notified as soon as possible, but at the latest, before 8.30am on the day of the lesson. Please call the teacher directly. • Instrumental/vocal teachers are advised by Cabra only of known whole school events.

Make-up lessons: If the instrumental/vocal teacher is appropriately notified of a student absence (see above), a make-up lesson will be organised by negotiation between the teacher, the student and the parent/caregiver. If Laurel Smith is not appropriately notified of a student absence, no makeup lesson will be offered, and the parents will be notified by mail of the unexplained absence.

Discontinuing lessons: To stop lessons, notification must be given in writing before the end of the agreed upon time. This notification should be given to Laurel Smith. If timely notification is not given, the student will be expected to continue until the end of agreed time.

I have read, understood and agree to comply with the conditions of this contract.
