Stefanie Rummel – The Artist

The award winning singer Stefanie Rummel invites you to a journey of different musical styles. Listen to the CD "Send In The Songs" or come to her shows and concerts.

The singer Stefanie Rummel studied musical theatre professionally and deepened her knowledge in singing, dancing and acting in Berlin, London and New York.

Engagements in musical theatre shows like Kiss me Kate, Sweet Charity, Jesus Christ and diverse productions of Non(n)sense. Her One-Woman-Shows are developed for theatres and special events and are shown nationally and internationally. She sings cover songs as well as she writes her own texts and music.

Lately she has been touring with her intercultural show: Chansons and more. French Chansons and personal anecdotes about the "Savoir vivre" make this show a very special evening.

She sings and touches her audience with positive energy. Thanks to her great background she surprises the audience with acts of tap or magic. She speaks fluently English, French and German and is often booked as a conférencier.

Stefanie Rummel has taught and directed various shows for her students and is specialized in Estill Voice Training. She is known to create and write own shows.

The press calls her the "musical chameleon". She won various prizes and also was a finalist in major singing competitions and television shows, The jury of the »Deutschen Rock & Pop Preis« voted her CD "Send In The Songs" as the second best Musical Theatre Album and as the second best Musical Theatre Singer.

Stefanie Rummel has lived nearly 2 years in the US and loves the mix between singing and acting and the challenges of character songs. www.stefanierummel.de
