

WHEN I COME HOME

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've done or where I've been

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've heard or what I've seen

*If I knew what I know now, oh, how I wish I'd never left
And the time that I've spent here I'm trying hard not to regret*

All I ask is can you find a place to lay my weary head

When I come home

These nights are not so quiet, oh, they're haunting me to death

And I'm breaking just a little every time I take a breath

So I think I'll come your way if you'll still be somewhere near

Not giving up, not moving on, and still wiping all my tears

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've done or where I've been

WHEN I COME HOME

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've heard or what I've seen

*If I knew what I know now, oh, how I wish I'd never left
And the time that I've spent here I'm trying hard not to regret*

All I ask is can you find a place to lay my weary head

When I come home

*I feel like I've been drugged every time the alarm screams
And I'm walking with my eyes closed to avoid the sunbeams
Can you tell me if I run to you, oh, what would I find
That at least some part of you still has me on your mind*

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've done or where I've been

WHEN I COME HOME

When I come home

Don't ask me what I've heard or what I've seen

*If I knew what I know now, oh, how I wish I'd never left
And the time that I've spent here I'm trying hard not to regret
All I ask is can you find a place to lay my weary head
When I come home*
