

It will still be there

If I'm burning these pages
It will still be there
And now I wish all the times that we had
Came back to me

It laid like a load
On my brown wary eyes
They took some time to open up
So, what I need right now
Is to feel you too
I close my eyes and see it through

How can I get over you?
All these nights that I've been hoping to Give you what`s in my heart and my soul
Now I'm giving up my pride
Cause I've waiting for someone like you

If you could see what I see
It will still be there
So, if you call me I'm right here and
And I'm ready forever
And back again

So, bring out the future now
Is all I need to say
I know that we will find a way

How can I get over you?
All these nights that I've been hoping to
Give you what`s in my heart and my soul
Now I'm giving up my pride
Cause I've waiting for someone like you.
