

Calling

You say here's the reason
Why you're trapped in this life
Hiding' the traces
In shades of a tower you can find her waiting Waiting silently

Don't you know
She's been calling
Calling out for you
Don't you know
She's been calling
calling out for you
And don't you know
That she's been saying' prayers
Many prayers until the words reach her haunted heart

A storm that rages
all the promises you've made Won't put you in a cage - a cage on a tower and now you must choose but there's no way you can win and there's no way you can loose

Don't you know
She's been calling
Calling out for you
Don't you know
She's been calling
Calling out for you
And don't you know
That she's been saying' prayers
Many prayers
Until the words reach her haunted heart
