

In the barrel of the night

Terry smiles
Hiding in the barrel of the night
Just watches time goes by

Have a drink be my company a little while Come here and have some wine

Come follow me
I'll take you to my destiny
There's still some time left for me

Watch my feet
see I'm walking down a dead-end street Had a friend lost his guardian angel in the end turned leprous amongst the men

Come follow me
I'll take you to my destiny
There's still some time left for me
