

Promise of time

Spending some time
trying to find all that I ever have seen in your eyes
All that I ever forgot and disguised

Open and clear
wanted to hear
finally leaves now are found by a dove not losing my sight in the promise of love

if this is the way
where beats my heart
when you're gone
when you're gone

Looked into the sky
promised the high
I'll never be unprotected and bound I never open the doors and be found

If this is the way
where beats my heart
when you're gone
when you're gone
